

EVALARM eLearning (LMS)

After the introduction of a new software system, the challenge is to train users in how to use it. For this we have developed the EVALARM learning platform, which gives users the opportunity to familiarize themselves with the functional scope of our platform.

The various learning courses deal with the use of the mobile app and the web cockpit as well as the administration of the platform and the additional modules. This means that every user, from simple users to administrators, can acquire the necessary basic knowledge and check it in knowledge tests at the end of each course.

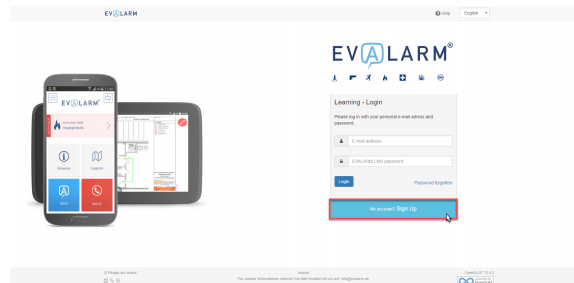

The eLearning platform helps to provide users with general knowledge in dealing with EVALARM, our wiki is available for detailed knowledge.

You also have the option of obtaining two EVALARM LMS certificates. Please contact support@evalarm.de.
